

PRRSUM

PARTNERSHIP FOR RIVER RESTORATION AND SCIENCE IN THE UPPER MIDWEST

The Upper Midwest Stream Restoration Symposium (UMSRS):

In response to a clear demand for collaboration, discussion, and knowledge exchange among restoration practitioners in the Upper Midwest, PRRSUM developed The Upper Midwest Stream Restoration Symposium (UMSRS). UMSRS brings leading national and regional stream restoration practitioners together for presentations and discussion on important regional stream and river restoration issues in the Upper Midwest.

2010 UMSRS Setting

- 21-24 February 2010, La Crosse WI
- Intimate, retreat-style meeting at the Stony Creek Inn/Conference Center
- Housing and meals on site

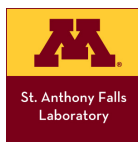

2010 UMSRS Meeting

- Single-track meeting with eight sessions and twenty-seven presentations
- Six invited speakers and a full poster session
- Optional half-day forum on restoring the channel-floodplain connection capped the event
- Presentations and posters archived at <http://www.prrsum.org>

2010 UMSRS Participants

- Eighty-five participants representing the Midwestern states of Illinois, Iowa, Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, North Dakota, Ohio, and Wisconsin. Participants also traveled from Colorado, Delaware, Kentucky, Maryland, New Hampshire, and North Carolina to attend.
- Symposium participants represented government agencies, academic institutions, consulting firms, and non-profit organizations and included staff, faculty, and students.

2010 UMSRS Sponsors

$2,000 Gold sponsorship

$1,500 Silver sponsorship

$800 Bronze sponsorship

2011 UMSRS

- 27 February - March 2, 2011
- Visit www.prrsum.org for more information